

E.ON Inhouse Consulting CEMS Summer Days 2019

Olá! Do you want to explore the energy world of tomorrow and connect with other students from all over Europe?

Then join the CEMS Summer Days in Lisbon from September 13–14!

This event will be hosted by E.ON Inhouse Consulting and is exclusively for enrolled CEMS students. Our consultants (CEMS alumni) are already looking forward to connecting with you in Lisbon.

We hold an energizing program for you that will introduce you to current hot topics of the energy world:

- Become a consultant for two days and crack an innovative case on digital transformation
- Train and deal with new methods that facilitate our future way of working in an agile training
- Create genuine connections with peers and our consultants
- Experience our exceptional culture during fun activities throughout the city of Lisbon

Take your chance to get to know our consultants personally and ask us all your burning question!

Sound interesting? Apply here by August 25.
